

2018 Salmon Summit

March 21 - 22, 2018

Reykjavik, Iceland

The 2018 Salmon Summit in Reykjavik, Iceland will be an opportunity for those in the salmon conservation community to connect with advocates and industry leaders. Participants will learn about current developments in salmon conservation on both sides of the Atlantic, and engage with their counterparts in identifying priorities and creating strategies for 2018 and beyond.

Registration: $160 USD. Registration deadline is March 1. Fees will help offset the cost of the meeting, with additional assistance from our sponsors. To register, please click here <https://tinyurl.com/yczf4qn5>.

Schedule:

3:00 PM, March 21, tour to Matorka, sustainable recirculating aquaculture facility

8:00 PM, March 21, welcome reception (location details forthcoming)

9:00 PM, March 21, screening of 'Lost at Sea'

9:00 AM – 5 PM, March 22, presentations and roundtable discussions, Hotel Grand Reykjavik (refreshments and light lunch provided)

Lodging: A limited number of rooms will be available at Grand Hotel Reykjavík, Sigtún 38105, Reykjavík. Block reference #: 274242. Please note that the block expires March 1, 2018.

For further information please email OrriFund@northatlanticsalmonfund.org

Sponsored by:

the CRRI fund

— THE — CONSERVATION FUND

